On-going events:

Second Thursday of the Month Book Club: February 8 at 2:00 PM - There is no assigned reading! Participants share and discuss the books they are reading from all genres and authors. You might find your next favorite book from the discussion.

Storytime: Every Friday at 10:30 AM Meet us in the children's area to sing some songs, listen to stories and make a craft. This is geared towards preschool age children, but children of all ages are welcome. A caregiver or parent must accompany children.

Specials:

Monday, February 5, 3:30-5:30 - LEGOS! Come use our supply of Legos to build and create. We will have challenges and other games to play.

Tuesday, February 13, 5-5:45 PM Holiday Storytime! Preschool and Elementary Age Children – come listen to some Valentine stories, then be one of the first to try-out our new book vending machine! All children in attendance will receive a special gold coin to use in the new book vending machine.

Tuesday, February 20, 1 PM Afternoon movie matinee with FREE popcorn. This month we are watching Hunger Games: Ballad of Songbirds and Snakes. Join us!

Friday, February 23, 1-3 PM Bingo for All! Any Age! Come play Bingo with us! Everyone is invited to enjoy an afternoon of Bingo and win some prizes.

Monday, February 26, 3:30-5:30 PM, Dogs Love Books! Come read a book to Bubba, a certified therapy dog. Dogs are really good listeners for beginning or reluctant readers. Please call the library at 920-834-7730 to schedule your time to read with Bubba.

Thursday, February 29, at 1:00 PM and repeats at 5:00 PM– Silk Floral Arrangements – Learn how to create your own silk floral arrangements. Grab a flyer about this event for more details!

Wednesday, March 12, 4:00 PM– It's the first meeting of our new Book Club! The 1903 Book Club (named for the year the library was founded) will meet once per month, on the 2nd Wednesday. Our first book to read is French Braid by Anne Tyler. Pick up your copy today at the library! Those in attendance at the first meeting will help pick our next book(s) to read together.
